

CHRISTIAN LEADERS' TRAINING COLLEGE OF
PAPUA NEW GUINEA INCORPORATION

NATIONAL PRINCIPAL
(To commence January 2019)

INVITATION FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST for a Nation building role

CLTC is an interdenominational college that for 48 years has served the communities and churches of Papua New Guinea and the South Pacific, equipping people for Christian leadership. The College is an accredited Higher Educational Institution offering a range of programs across diploma, degree and post graduate levels on the main campus at Banz in the Wahgi Valley (Jiwaka Province), the urban centres in Port Moresby and Lae, and through Distance Education...

The College has significant agricultural support programs in beef cattle, rice and poultry that assist in contributing to the development of the economy of the highlands, training skilled employees, and partially supporting the training programs.

The National Principal will be responsible for the overall team leadership of the College ministries, communicating vision, affirming core values, overseeing the integrity of academic standards, guiding curriculum development and teaching, developing relationships with churches and public relations with community and government, empowering faculty and staff in their roles, and building accountability throughout the College organisation. The precise nature of the role can be discussed to best suit the gifts and experience of the appointee. The Principal will be well supported with competent staff in the detailed leadership of the Educational, Support and Services divisions.

The Council invites those with suitable experience and qualifications who would like further information, or who have an interest in applying for this position to write for a Position Description, enclosing a CV, and outlining Christian faith, work and leadership experience, and tertiary or business level qualifications to
