His Pain and Our Full Blessings

Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the disciples. . . . "Stay here and watch with me." (Matt. 26: 36, 38)

We can never fully comprehend Christ's agony in the Garden of Gethsemane, but at least we don't have to misunderstand it. It is the agony of God and man in the one Person, coming face to face with sin. We cannot learn about Gethsemane through personal experience. Gethsemane and Calvary represent something totally unique – they are the gateway into life for us.

It was not death on the Cross that Jesus agonized over in Gethsemane. In fact He stated very emphatically that he came with the purpose of dying. His concern here was that he might not get through this struggle as the Son of Man. He was confident of getting through it as the Son of God. Satan could not touch Him there. But Satan's assault was that our Lord would come through for us on His own, solely as the Son of Man. If Jesus had done that, he could not have been our Saviour (see Hebrews 9: 11-15).

His agony in Gethsemane must also be understood in light of His earlier wilderness temptation, ". . . The devil. . . departed from Him until an opportune time" (Luke 4:13). In Gethsemane, Satan came back and was overthrown again. Satan's final assault against our Lord as the Son of Man was in Gethsemane.

The agony of Gethsemane was the agony of the Son of God in fulfilling His destiny as the Saviour of the world. The veil is pulled back here to reveal all that it cost Him to make it possible for us to become children of God. His agony was the basis for the simplicity of our salvation.

The Cross of Christ was a triumph for the Son of Man. It is not only the sign that our Lord had triumphed, but that He triumphed to save lost humanity. Because of what the Son of Man went through, every human being has been provided with a way of access into the very presence of God our Father.

As we celebrate Easter, let's meditate deeply on the fact that to secure our access to God's presence, it cost the Saviour a great deal. Our salvation was costly, but you do not have to pay anything for it, it is offered to us free at somebody else's expense, our Lord Jesus Christ. Glory and honour belongs to Christ alone.

Happy Easter Celebration to you all!!!

WELCOME

Warm welcome to Dr. Ross Weymouth and his wife, Mrs. Alison Weymouth who arrive from Victoria, Australia this weekend. Ross and Alison will join the faculty staff as adjunct staff for Term 02. We praise God for their availability teaching and training Christian leaders of Today. Welcome to Christian Leaders' Training College family of God.

Welcome to Vice Principal Education, Dr. Philip Tait and the wife, Mrs. Jilliard Tait from their short break from Cairns, Australia.

THANK YOU

The Easter Camp Organising Committee takes this opportunity to convey our sincere gratitude and acknowledgement to the Easter Camp Speaker, Pastor Dr. Julian Robert Kivori and his dear wife, Mrs. Rachel Kivori and the son, Jathniel and the team members: Mr. Bill & Mrs. Ranu Seneka, Mrs. Stella Veoli and Mr. Ian Ilaupa. Thank you so much for your selfless love and availability and willingness to accept our invitation. God alone gets all the Glory, Honor and Praise.

Our appreciation and thank you to the 205 Campers from different denominations and institutions in the Waghi Valley area and other Provinces in the Highlands Region and the campers from Morobe and one from Wewak.

Thank you to the CLTC Students and the College Community Family for your prayers and support and participations to making the 04th CLTC National Crossroad Easter Camp a successful one.

We pray for God's blessings to everyone. God alone be glorified in everything.

TOKSAVE

1. CLTC EASTER CROSSROAD YOUTH CAMP

There were 205 Campers attended the "CLTC National Crossroad Easter Camp" last weekend. The entire College Community participated fully the Easter Camp program since the commencement and welcome service on Thursday 18th (evening) through to Sunday 21st of April 2019.

The Word was well presented resulting many lives were transformed and accepted Christ Jesus as their personal Savior and Lord of their lives. And many individuals recommitted their faith to the work of God. We Praise God for using the Speaker, Pastor Dr. Julian Robert Kivori and the team from Port Moresby mightily for His Glory.

Indeed our good God visited us, the College Family and the Campers. We praise God for the Prayer Groups, Partners and Supporters for your prayers. God alone be glorified forever and ever!

2. CONGRATULATIONS Ms. Tracey Hitu on your Graduation Celebration.

The CLTC Management and Staff congratulate Ms Tracey Hitu who successfully completed her studies at the University of Goroka. Tracey is current employed with CLTC Clinic. Tracey is graduating with Bachelor in Mid-wife this weekend alongside Mr. Samuel Ninjipa and Ms Batchiba Casper.

We wish Ms Tracey Hitu, Ms Batchiba Casper and Mr. Samuel Ninjipa a joyous Graduation Celebrations with families and loved ones.

3. Pray for Ms Batchiba Casper

Please pray for Ms Batchiba Casper, mourning for the passing-on of her dear mother over the Easter weekend. Pray for strength and comfort for Batchiba Casper and the family.

PRAYER & PRAISE: (from CHRISTIAN LEADERS' TRAINING COLLEGE of PNG, PRAISE AND PRAYER NOTES, April 2019 by Dr. Phil Tait).

1. 23 Tues PRAY for Jill Tait and Nyree Haon as they develop a dental education program for the kindy and school children. A recent survey found that the children have a lot of tooth decay, requiring tooth extractions for many.
2. 24 Wed PRAISE for a very wet start to the year and full water tanks. PRAY for Joseph Jackbo, our new plumber, that he would keep up with a heavy load of maintenance issues.
3. 25 Thur PRAISE for 17 students in a pilot degree program at Lae campus. Five of these are full-time company and government employees. PRAY that they will find time to do their study. Moses and Henoma have been teaching courses. Help from Banz will be arranged for other courses.
4. 26 Fri PRAISE for Karl Venz and his effort to fix the two generators in the college which are now able to start automatically. PRAY for steady voltage from PNG Power that has caused equipment to malfunction recently.
5. 27 Sat PRAY for the installment of power meters in houses to be completed so that the College can better manage power consumption. PRAY for protection of the electricians in their work.
6. 28 Sun PRAY for the Principal, William Longgar, and Iru his wife, as they lead the College. PRAY for recruitment of a new chaplain with a background in counselling to help nurture staff and students.
7. 29 Mon PRAISE for faithful and generous donors who sponsor students and give to capital projects at CLTC. PRAISE for Overseas Council Australia who substantially fund the MTh program as well as other needs. PRAY for God's blessing of these donors.
8. 30 Tues PRAISE for BTh1 leading the College Half Day of Prayer today. PRAY for wisdom and strength as they prepare and as community meet to seek God in the needs of the college, that our trust is in God.
