

From the Office of the Principal

Theme 2021:

True Repentance

Job 40: 1-24

"I am unworthy, how can I reply to you? I put my hand over my mouth"
(Job 40:4)

God had rebuked Job. "Will the one who contends with the Almighty correct him?" (40:2). Job had said that God contended (competed) with him (10: 1-2) and was unwise (23: 3-7). Now a more contrite (repentant) Job replied, "I am unworthy, how can I reply to you?" He would stop challenging and be silent. But silence is not the same as repentance, so God continued to work in his (Job's) heart.

Finally Job said, "Therefore I despise myself and repent in dust and ashes" (42:6). Because the Lord desired to bless Job, He was not satisfied with anything less than genuine repentance. God is working for the same goal in us.

So often when we want to apologise to a person we've wronged, we always want to qualify or explain the reason why we did what we did against the person. When we are genuinely sorry for the wrong we did, then all we need to do is to say; "I am sorry." It is serious when the Holy Spirit is convicting us of sin, and we seek to reason with God in order to avoid the conviction. But the Bible says to us, "Come now, let us reason together," says the Lord. 'Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow, though they be red as crimson, they shall be as wool'" (Isaiah 1:18).

Crimson and scarlet are both deep-stained colours; symbolizing the deep-stain of sin in our lives. But the blood of the Lord Jesus goes much deeper in cleansing us from the deep staining effect of sin. We need to be truly broken and contrite in our hearts when the Holy Spirit convicts us of sin. There is a deep sense of freedom in knowing I am forgiven of my sins; "Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life has set me free from the law of sin and death" (Romans 8:1, 2).

Let me close with a few lines from a song written by John Wigner:

*Come to the Saviour now, He gently calls thee;
In true repentance bow, before Him bend the knee*

Have a blessed weekend!
